The meeting was presided over by esteemed speakers, Dr A. Thilagaraj and Dr R. Angayakanni, along with Chairperson S. Jayanth Kumar and Co-chairperson M. K. Guganathan. Dr. A. Thilagaraj initiated the session by underscoring the critical role of communication skills in personal and professional success. He highlighted how the club aims to create a supportive environment for members to hone their speaking abilities. Dr. Angayakanni followed, offering profound insights on open communication and its role in fostering meaningful relationships and team dynamics. The leadership team then elaborated on the club's objectives and activities. Co-chairperson M K Guganathan provided an overview of how the club operates, emphasizing inclusivity and collaboration. Chairperson S Jayanth Kumar concluded by encouraging members to actively engage in the club's initiatives and share their ideas. The meeting set an optimistic tone for the club's future, inspiring members to embrace the art of communication as a transformative tool.

Finance Club Meeting Report – 9th December 2024

The Finance Club held its first meeting of the academic year on 9th December 2024 from 12:30 PM to 1:30 PM. The session was presided over by Chairperson Niranjan Madhu Menon and Co-chairperson Maitri, who introduced the club's goals and outlined its operational framework. Niranjan Madhu Menon began the meeting by explaining how the club functions, focusing on its mission to promote financial literacy and provide a platform for students to explore the dynamic world of finance. He highlighted the importance of social media engagement, encouraging members to leverage platforms for outreach and to stay informed about the club's activities. Maitri elaborated on opportunities for members to take an active role in club events. She detailed upcoming initiatives such as Model United Nations (MUN) sessions with a financial focus and Stockathon, a competitive event simulating stock market scenarios. Maitri emphasized the value of these activities in building practical financial knowledge and fostering teamwork. The session concluded with an open invitation for members to share their ideas and commit to active participation. The leadership team expressed their enthusiasm for creating a collaborative environment where members could develop skills and gain insights into the financial world. The meeting ended on an engaging and optimistic note.

Media Club Meeting Report – 10th December 2024

The Media Club held its first meeting of the academic year on 10th December 2024, under the leadership of Chairperson Balasubramanian and Co-chairperson B Dharshini. The session began with an enthusiastic introduction by the chairperson, who shared the club's vision and objectives, emphasizing its role in fostering creative media talent. During the meeting, Balasubramanian outlined how the club operates, shedding light on its organizational structure, event planning, and collaboration opportunities. B Dharshini elaborated on the diverse media-related activities the club organizes, including film screenings, content creation workshops, and promotional events. The chairperson also encouraged members to actively contribute their ideas, assuring them that the club provides a platform for innovative thinking and teamwork. A Q&A session was conducted towards the end, where students eagerly engaged with the leadership team to understand how they could participate in upcoming projects. The meeting concluded with an invitation to explore the club's potential and help it grow into a vibrant creative community.

Speak Up Club Meeting 2 Report – 11th December 2024

The Speak Up Club conducted its second meeting on 11th December 2024, featuring engaging debates on thought-provoking topics. The session aimed to improve members' public speaking and critical thinking skills under the guidance of Chairperson S Jayanth Kumar and Co-chairperson M K Gunganathan. Debates centered on topics such as "Has Indian cinema influenced society positively or negatively?" and "Should English language continue to be a medium of instruction?" Members enthusiastically presented their arguments, showcasing diverse perspectives and analytical insights. The chairperson and co-chairperson played an active role in identifying areas for improvement, offering constructive feedback on articulation, clarity, and persuasion techniques. They encouraged participants to focus on structuring their arguments effectively and maintaining confidence while speaking. The session provided a platform for members to express their ideas freely while learning from their peers. The leadership team emphasized the importance of listening skills and respectful dialogue in fostering impactful communication. By the end of the meeting, members had gained valuable experience in debating and received actionable advice to refine their speaking abilities. The event concluded on a positive note, leaving participants motivated to further develop their communication skills.
