Project-Based Learning: A Strategic Path to Sustainable Growth

The Department of English and Foreign Languages ensures that Project-Based Learning (PBL) is at the core of its curriculum, fostering problem-solving, critical thinking, teamwork, communication, creativity, and time management skills.

Unlike traditional lecture-based learning, PBL offers a hands-on, experiential approach, engaging students in real-world challenges. PBL emphasizes collaboration, project outcomes, and practical applications, ensuring students graduate with industry-ready skills for professional success.

Seamless Integration – Enhancing engagement & real-world learning.

Hands-on Learning – Projects, case studies & problem-solving activities.

Communicative English – Novel-based real-world language projects.
Foreign Languages – Linguistic and cultural immersion projects.

Student & Faculty Involvement – Collaborative research, presentations & industry-relevant projects.
