

Program Learning Outcomes (PLOs)

PL01: The students are enabled to creative, analyze, design and develop innovative ideas and concept in all disciplines leading to successful career.

PL02: Students are tuned to the structural approach in providing optimum solution to practical problems which they come across during their career.

PL03: Students will be confident to handle projects in emerging technology areas, highly software driven, reinforcing the technical resources of the nation.

PL04: Students can be more competitive and exploit the opportunities through global assignments taking the nation on a more developed path,

PL05: Students can make themselves 'highlighted' in all technical and social environments.