

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH
COURSE OUTCOMES

ENGLISH-I (CLZ1L)

The Completion of the Course helps the Students to:

CO-1: Recall universality and timelessness of various literary texts.

CO-2: Compare various genres of literature and literary devices in literary works.

CO-3: Paraphrase poetry and their influences in life.

CO-4: Explain the story structure and the elements of them.

CO-5: Identify the common errors in speech and writing.

CO-6: Develop the basics of oral communication for academic, social and professional situations.

ENGLISH-I (CLZ1K)

The Completion of the Course helps the Students to:

CO-1: Recall universality and timelessness of various literary texts.

CO-2: Compare various genres of literature and literary devices in literary works.

CO-3: Paraphrase poetry and their influences in life.

CO-4: Explain the story structure and the elements of them.

CO-5: Identify the common errors in speech and writing.

CO-6: Develop the basics of oral communication for academic, social and professional situations.

ENGLISH-I (CE51A)

The Completion of the Course helps the Students to:

CO-1: Recall universality and timelessness of various literary texts.

CO-2: Compare various genres of literature and literary devices in literary works.

CO-3: Paraphrase poetry and their influences in life.

CO-4: Explain the story structure and the elements of them.

CO-5: Identify the common errors in speech and writing.

CO-6: Develop the basics of oral communication for academic, social and professional situations.

ENGLISH-II (CLZ2L)

The Completion of the Course helps the Students to:

- CO-1: List out types of literary techniques employed in the lesson.
- CO-2: Classify the figurative language used in literary works.
- CO-3: Use imagination as the shaping force of creative writing.
- CO-4: Analyze the good characters of lessons suitably in their life.
- CO-5: Identify the common errors in speech and writing.
- CO-6: Construct the sentences for communication for academic, social and professional situations.

ENGLISH-II (CLZ2K)

The Completion of the Course helps the Students to:

- CO-1: List out types of literary techniques employed in the lesson.
- CO-2: Classify the figurative language used in literary works.
- CO-3: Use imagination as the shaping force of creative writing.
- CO-4: Analyze the good characters of lessons suitably in their life.
- CO-5: Identify the common errors in speech and writing.
- CO-6: Construct the sentences for communication for academic, social and professional situations.

ENGLISH-II (CE52A)

The Completion of the Course helps the Students to:

- CO-1: List out types of literary techniques employed in the lesson.
 - CO-2: Classify the figurative language used in literary works.
 - CO-3: Use imagination as the shaping force of creative writing.
 - CO-4: Analyze the good characters of lessons suitably in their life.
 - CO-5: Identify the common errors in speech and writing.
 - CO-6: Construct the sentences for communication for academic, social and professional situations.
- .

ENGLISH-III (CLZ3M)

The Completion of the Course helps the Students to:

- CO-1: Demonstrate knowledge of literary term and devices engaged in the works.
- CO-2: Identify various forms and types of poetry.
- CO-3: Write fiction in the form of short stories, fiction and novelettes.
- CO-4: Acquire creative voice in nonfiction such as biographical and autobiographical essays.
- CO-5: Use English Grammar better in their spoken and written communication.
- CO-6: Employ appropriate strategies and devices in their reading, writing and speaking.

ENGLISH-III (CLZ3P)

The Completion of the Course helps the Students to:

- CO-1: Demonstrate knowledge of literary term and devices engaged in the works.
- CO-2: Identify various forms and types of poetry.
- CO-3: Write fiction in the form of short stories, fiction and novelettes.
- CO-4: Acquire creative voice in nonfiction such as biographical and autobiographical essays.
- CO-5: Use English Grammar better in their spoken and written communication.
- CO-6: Employ appropriate strategies and devices in their reading, writing and speaking.

ENGLISH-IV (CLZ4N)

The Completion of the Course helps the Students to:

- CO-1: Interpret the lesson with attentions to complexity and aesthetic value.
- CO-2: Paraphrase various forms and types of poetry.
- CO-3: Write descriptive writing and Rhetorical elements in writing.
- CO-4: Extend their knowledge on dramatic skills exemplified in the plays and the character of the dramatic personae.
- CO-5: Demonstrate flawless English in speech and writing with grammar.
- CO-6: Employ appropriate strategies and devices in their reading, writing and speaking.

ENGLISH-IV (CLZ4R)

The Completion of the Course helps the Students to:

- CO-1: Interpret the lesson with attentions to complexity and aesthetic value.
- CO-2: Paraphrase various forms and types of poetry.
- CO-3: Write descriptive writing and Rhetorical elements in writing.
- CO-4: Extend their knowledge on dramatic skills exemplified in the plays and the character of the dramatic personae.
- CO-5: Demonstrate flawless English in speech and writing with grammar.
- CO-6: Employ appropriate strategies and devices in their reading, writing and speaking.

COMMUNICATIVE ENGLISH-I (LZ11A)

The Completion of the Course helps the Students to:

- CO-1: Converse in English appropriately and better accordingly to the situation and people.
- CO-2: Construct correct sentences with known vocabularies.
- CO-3: Explain the nuances of listening, speaking and reading English.
- CO-4: Classify English grammar in their writing.
- CO-5: Execute communication skills effectively and fluently in real-life situation.
- CO-6: Lead their lives as self-directed English language learners.

COMMUNICATIVE ENGLISH-II (LZ12A)

The Completion of the Course helps the Students to:

- CO-1: Articulate English words appropriately and better.
- CO-2: Describe events with suitable vocabularies.
- CO-3: Apply the nuances of listening, speaking and reading English.
- CO-4: Classify English grammar and use them in their writing.
- CO-5: Demonstrate their communication skills effectively and fluently in real-life situation.
- CO-6: Discover their potential to become autonomous and self-directed English language learners.

LANGUAGE THROUGH LITERATURE-I (LZ13B)

The Completion of the Course helps the Students to:

- CO-1: Use vocabulary appropriately to communicate.
- CO-2: Rewrite words and sentences by changing their forms.
- CO-3: Employ better pronunciation of words in their life.
- CO-4: Prepare application letter and resume to face interview.
- CO-5: Produce short stories and poems.
- CO-6: Develop webpage for themselves and others.

LANGUAGE THROUGH LITERATURE-II (LZ14B)

The Completion of the Course helps the Students to:

- CO-1: Prepare different kinds of writing in English.
- CO-2: Produce sentences without errors.
- CO-3: Rewrite words and sentences by changing their forms and use them appropriately.
- CO-4: Roleplay the characters of literary works.
- CO-5: Create a webpage for themselves and others.
- CO-6: Acquire a sensibility to the social and economic divisions.