ALUMNI PROFILE

GOKULRAJ G KANAGARAJ (2009 MECH)

Zany Entrepreneur!

My aspiration in life has always been to surmount my father in being successful as an entrepreneur. After a two year stint in USA pursuing my Master's, I came back to India to start my entrepreneurial dream by starting a fun-filled eCommerce portal (ZAPstore.com) retailing electronic gadgets catering to Generation Y. I exited ZAPstore in late 2012.

During mid 2012, I joined the core team of MyCopie as CEO taking care of Market Strategy and Operations. We have launched Designer notebooks (MyCopie.com) exclusively for college students in and around 1500 stores targeting college students in Chennai, Bangalore, Mangalore, Hyderabad, Trichy, Coimbatore, Goa, Mumbai, Vellore, Manipal etc. We are expanding to other Tier 1 cities in the near future. As an extension to MyCopie, we recently launched our Premium Stationery brand, HAZEL targeting CEOs, Artists, Professionals, Travelers, etc. This is not yet another journal with ruled and unruled pages and a pouch at the back. The materials on the inside and outside have been chosen from Italy to give the best writing and handling experience. We have designed this product to feel premium not only on your table but also when you carry it around. The content inside the journal has been designed specifically to improve the productivity of the personnel owning it. We believe that we have a great opportunity in hand to cater to the elite audience with our Premium product.

In addition, we launched MadCap.in in November 2016 focusing on designer stationery and merchandise targeting people between the age group of 18-35 years of age. We design and retail our products to emulate the ego and emotion of our customers. We retail across India, USA and Europe through our partners.
