Purpose: The purpose of the meet was to strengthen the relationship of the present team with The Conrods alumni. Alumni members, because of their presence in the industry in leading positions, have gained a lot of experience which will benefit the team not only technically, but also in wholesome development. The team also felt that this would provide a wonderful platform for the alumni to catch up with their team mates.

The Meet: The meet was held in the seminar hall of Mechanical B-Block. After a small delay, the meet kicked off at around 1 pm. Our faculty advisor, Mr. P Baskara Sethupathi, started off the event by delivering a welcome speech and distributing the SRM Alumni souvenir, which we are thankful to the SRM Alumni Association for providing. Then we took a break for lunch which was provided at the Royal Café restaurant. After lunch there was an interaction section with alumni members where they shared their experiences in the team, in the industry and gave us valuable suggestions and advice which will immensely help in carrying forward the team. The team was taken to our fabrication bay after the interaction session. The alumni were overwhelmed at visiting the fabrication bay, all their experiences and memories with the team were revived. The meet concluded after the visit to fabrication bay.

Takeaway from the Meet: The alumni were very satisfied with the way the meet was organized. They had given us insights into how the documentation and design reports can be improved, which will fetch more points in the static events. They also helped us understand what the industry expects from the teams during the event. This will help us in being better prepared. A few new ideas were put forward by them for making the team more visible, which will hugely benefit the team in availing more sponsorships. Some alumni in the corporate and sales field, they were able to suggested innovative ways for generating better monetary support. On the whole, the meet has been a great learning experience for the and it will surely result in a stronger relation between the team and alumni.

Alumni Meet – 2017:

The team has planned to hold an alumni meet every year. We expect the attendance to only increase each year. The meet will keep the alumni in direct contact with the future teams, this will make the alumni feel more connected to the team, like they have never left the team!
