

"Climbing to the top demands strength, whether it is to the top of Mount Everest or to the top of your career."

WORLD STUDENTS' DAY 2024

Celebrated every year on October 15th, World Students' Day honours Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam, former President of India and a respected scientist. This day reflects his strong connection with students and his dedication to education, innovation, and helping society. Dr. Kalam's inspiring story, from humble beginnings to becoming the "People's President," shows how hard work and belief in one's abilities can lead to great success.

World Students' Day emphasizes the important role of students in shaping their future. Their curiosity, energy, and fresh ideas drive progress and positive change. As we celebrate, this day recognises that their achievements and dreams, providing support and opportunities to grow their talents. Let us continue to empower students by celebrating their achievements, as we invest in the future leaders and innovators of the world.

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH AND FOREIGN LANGUAGES

The Department of EFL provides students with the vital training to meet the demands of global communication and helps them develop proficiency in English and other languages. The Department was established in 1985 and expanded to include other foreign languages such as German, Russian, Japanese, French, Chinese, Korean and Spanish and became the Department of English and Foreign Languages in 2005-06. The language department caters adequately to complement the skills acquired by the students in their chosen courses and equips them for a larger global audience. Diploma and certificate courses in English are also offered for International students from different countries like China, Korea, Afghanistan, Syria, Togo, and Iran. The Department has strong research activities, with nearly 104 researchers working on unique fields. On the whole, it provides valuable experience and a potential edge for future career of the students.

EFL CONCLAVE

DICOVER DISCUSS DISSEMINATE

The Department of English and Foreign Languages has built a forum to Discover, Discuss, and Disseminate. The team calls it - 'The EFL Conclave'. It proposes to discover by gauging the depths of language and literature; to discuss the eventual trends in teaching and research; and disseminate the knowledge across generations. The EFL Conclave looks forward to collaborating with all the research bodies and minds to enable quality research and discourses. It proposes to dive into series of events like, TEDx talks, summits, book launches, verse slam, inclusive talks, 'lit-athon', 'ling-athon', and many more such innovative and sustainable ventures.

It is committed to create an empire of 'esprit de corps' and it firmly believes that the research fraternity through their collaborative efforts will enrich, evolve, and emerge as a dynamic forum for fathoming the wisdom.
