RESEARCH METHODOLOGY

Universities (government, private and deemed) meeting the following criteria were considered for THE WEEK-Hansa Research Best University Survey 2014:

- Recognised by the UGC and offering full-time postgraduate degree courses in at least two disciplines
- Completed at least three batches of students for postgraduate pro-

In fact, entrepreneurship culture is being nurtured across campuses as a priority initiative. While most universities these days have their own entrepreneurship development cells, Manav Rachna International University in Faridabad, Haryana, has gone a step further; it plans to have its own venture capital fund to support the start-ups on its campus. "In the current environment, getting a job is a challenge. We are encouraging students to move towards entrepreneurship. Students have come up with innovative ideas which are being nurtured and mentored by the entrepreneurship cell. There are students who are seriously looking to pursue
